

Full Membership Application Center for Family Justice

- The Center for Family Justice has been created to:
 1. support children and parents caught in the family court system,
 2. call for state- and federal-level reform to insure that justice is served with the best interests of families in mind,
 3. expose illegal and harmful practices in the family court system, and
 4. inform the general public about the process.
- Full membership requires eligibility in order to avoid conflicts of interest. See the certification below to determine your eligibility for this level of membership. Persons who do not qualify for full membership may join as associate members.
- Our membership list and associated information is strictly used for internal CFJ business. We do not share this information with other organizations, companies, or individuals.

Certification

I certify that I am not in a position to financially or politically benefit, directly or indirectly, from litigants undergoing family court cases in New Mexico. (Examples include attorneys, judges, mediators, or psychologists.) Furthermore, no member of my immediate family or close associate (business partner, mentor, colleague, or romantic partner) is in such a position. This statement does not include benefits a family court litigant may receive due to ordinary court decisions.
