Dear Mr. Sain:

I write in response to your letter to Governor Richardson and others, dated April 3, 2007.

As you may know, the Governor of the State of New Mexico, under the Separation of Powers Doctrine, cannot intervene in the judicial process. We have reviewed your letter; because it involves an issue pertaining to the judicial branch, this office is unable offer assistance in this regard.

I trust that this letter is an adequate response to your inquiry.

Sincerely,
