Petitioner,

v.

Case No. DM 2003-01442

Charles J. Sain,

Respondent.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO QUASH SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM

After reviewing the non-party, Chief Judge for the Second Judicial District William Lang's, Motion for Protective Order and to Quash Subpoena and the Respondent's Motion to Compel and after hearing oral argument by Charles J. Sain and the Attorney General's Office on September 11, 2006, representing Judge Lang, the Court hereby finds and orders the following:

1. The Motion for Protective Order and to Quash Subpoena is well taken and the subpoena issued against Judge Lang on July 25, 2006 is hereby quashed. The subpoena duces tecum requested by Charles J. Sain is not likely to lead to admissible evidence in the above captioned case. The information requested relates to Respondent's restrictions to the Second Judicial District Court pursuant to Local Rule 2-108, "Security" and to the security issues addressed in the administrative order under Misc. No. MS A 1211.
2. The Respondent, Charles J. Sain's, Motion to Compel is hereby denied, as he state's no legal authority to properly plead and to support his motion.
