50 NARRATIVE I was dispatched to UNMH to photograph a small red mark on the back of victim's neck. The mark was about the size of a dime and faded red in color. Victim said the mark was made by his father grabbing him around the neck. I took midrange and close-up photo of the mark. A scale was used as needed. I was not able to find any other similar marks on the front or sides of victim's neck. I submitted my film for processing.
