MINUTE ORDER

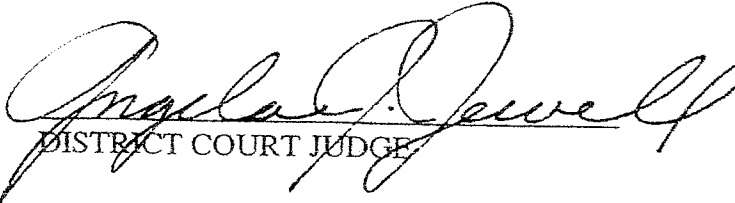

THIS MATTER having come before the Court on March 3, 2004, on the Petitioner's Motion for Contempt, Sanctions and to Compel Reimbursement; the Petitioner appearing in person and being represented by Joyce M. Gentry; the Respondent appearing in person and proceeding Pro Se; the Court having heard testimony and argument; having examined the pleadings, and being otherwise sufficiently advised in the premises, FINDS:

1. Counsel for the Respondent withdrew as her counsel of record, effective March 3, 2004.
2. Counsel for the Petitioner raised concerns regarding Respondent's ability to represent herself in a civil proceeding.
3. A custody evaluation was performed by Dr. Richard Reed and testing was performed on both parties.

IT IS THEREFOR ORDERED:

1. The Court Clinic shall perform a psychological evaluation of the Respondent, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] to determine if she has the capability to represent her self in this case.
2. Neither party has any objection to the Court Clinician obtaining access to Dr. Richard

Reed's Report, and the parties shall sign releases to that effect, if necessary.
